

Legend has it that in early 18th century's New Jersey, a woman accused of witchcraft faced trial. She was found guilty and was sentenced to death. A few hours later, the ill-fated woman was thrown into the fire. Her name was Barbara Que. Ever since, every time a fire was lit to grill meat, one would refer to the size of the flame that burned Barbara Que. Uttered enough times consecutively, the words Barbara and Que began to run together and became synonymous with grilling outdoors!
